1960 Austin A99 Westminster

As good a Farina bodied 6 cylinder automatic as you are ever likely to get; we have seen this car before but now it is even better, beautifully presented in two tone grey with lovely original brown leather interior. The C series straight 6 with twin SU carburettors gives this car ample power, the gearbox is smooth and responsive, and the brakes are enhanced by a servo. . All the places that Farina bodies go are exceptional, comes with period radio, service manual and driver's handbook along with a good history file and a recent service. It featured in 'A Town and Country Murders' Series 1 Episode 5 (2013). Must be one of the best.
