1962 Citroen 2CV

Charming early example, first registered in the UK in 1962 but may well be earlier. Lovely early features include ripple bonnet, suicide doors, lack of rear quarter windows, probably started life as a 435 cc but has had a more recent (and less pedestrian) 602 cc engine fitted, including inboard front discs, has a galvanised chassis, and more comfortable seats fitted, believed to be from an Ami 6. Is an older restoration with a few rust blemishes, paintwork is very good, current owner used the car in Spain and brought it back last year, recent bill for bodywork, new kingpins etc for just under £2,000. Comes with original registration, a newish roof and a little history. Combines the charm of an early 2CV with the practicality and comfort of a more recent one.
