1951 Jowett Javelin

Astonishingly the last owner had the car 41 years, using it for years as his daily driver and family car, V5 shows no previous owners but there is believed to have been one! The underside looks very sound, the bodywork and black paint are good for such an original car. Drove 40 miles to us without issues, the engine is sweet, brakes are excellent, column gear-change precise, even the clock works, and the engine bay tidy with that Jowett quirkiness. interior is original with good brown leather seats, fitted with seat belts. This very original car comes with very desirable LOV registration, Instruction Book, a little history, and V5C.
