1939 Rover 14h.p. Four Light Sports Saloon

Ownership known since 1955, when acquired by Mr Rodgers of London, who subsequently moved to Romsey in Hampshire and ran it till 1975, when it appears to have been laid up to 1984, then passed to a Mr Anderson. Subsequently purchased for the Flying Scotsman Rally, but not actually used, then a period of film work. Returned to private ownership and sold by Pioneer Automobiles in 2014, in need of some tidying. Recent work includes re-wiring, re-chroming, new headlining and carpet mats. The car is said to run and drive extremely well and the 0-60 mph time was quoted at a dizzy 41.3secs, with top speed of 72mph. The six cylinder engine of 1901cc drives through a 4 speed manual gearbox with freewheel. It appears to be very sound, black paintwork is recent and very good, red is older and possibly original. Seats are original and have a lovely patina that's impossible to re-produce Comes with V5C and some history.
