1991 Seat Terra Danbury Chico Camper

Derived from the Seat Terra van, a sibling of the Seat Marbella car, and then converted by leading campervan specialists – Danbury Conversions, this remarkable bijou camper offers space and flexibility in a small space. Bodywork and paint are excellent, the VW diesel smooth with reasonable performance through a 5 speed box, odometer reading of just over 43,000 miles could well be correct. It is running well and drove over 100 miles to us on two occasions. Equipment includes lifting top, two six foot berths (or one double), sink and tap, cooker, calor gas bottle, table, space and wiring for a leisure battery, two rear seats with seat belts, radio, and comes with MOT, handbook, Chico campervan leaflet. Photos on our website illustrate the flexibility of this vehicle. A huge amount packed into a small space, ready to go touring for just £3,950.
