1929 Singer Junior Four Seater Tourer

Utterly charming and great fun to drive; starts easily, drives, steers and stops as it should with surprisingly effective four wheel brakes, condition is lovely with excellent paint, fine bodywork, very sound underside, very good hood and side-screens, new tyres, recently fitted with stop and indicator lights in the interests of safety. Clearly much loved, magneto looks to have been recently re-furbished. Comes with a number of useful booklets including Rotax Electrical Lighting... (original), Singer Junior sales booklet (original), Owner's Handbook (original but poor), Book of the Singer Junior by GS Davison (reprint), Solex carburettor Type M (copy), a little history and V5C.
