1933 Standard Little Nine Four Seater Tourer

Believed to be the only surviving example, starts easily, runs well with light steering and good brakes. Paintwork has surface rust patches on some panels, bodywork and underside are generally sound with no penetrating rust found, chrome is original, interior has a lovely patina and the hood and side screens have been recently replaced. Mechanically excellent, the engine has been overhauled in the last couple of years, radiator repaired and shock absorbers refurbished, clutch relined and electric fuel pump fitted. Comes with a little history, Instruction Book, Standard Sales Booklet for 1933, Lubrication Chart and Spare Parts booklet. Wonderful as is, or well worth improving during lockdown.
